INCIDENTS IN HARLEM.

REPUBLICANS BEGIN AN ACTIVE CAMPAIGN -JUNE EXCURSIONS AND EN-TERTAINMENTS.

The difference in the manner in which the Republicans and Democratis of Burlem received the news of the nemination of their standard-hearers for the Presidential campaign of 1862 is one of the many straws that are pointing to certain and overwhelming Democratic defeat in November. When the nomination of Harrison and Reid was flashed across the wires, a number of Harrison and Reid banners within twelve hours in front of their headquarters and several of the cinhs held ruit faculton meetings and several of the cinhs held ruit aspecial meeting by means of special messengers, for there was no time for postal cards, and that some algalit the hall of the club was crowded with enthusiastic men, while cheer after cheer went up for Harrison and Reid, whose nominations were ratified in most emplatic resolutions that seme night. Other Harrison and Reid, whose nominations were ratified in most emplatic resolutions that seme night. Other Harrison allowed the same thing, and nearly all the Republican organizations north of Fifty-mill the Republican organizations with the result of the Chear of the Republican organization with the Republican organization of the Republican o The difference in the manner in which the Repub-ilcans and Democrats of Harlem received the news of the nomination of their standard-hearers for the Presidential campaign of 1862 is one of the many

A letter carrier who was a member of a certain Demo-cratic club in Harlem happened to drop into the club-room about 10 o'clock and heard them talking about Mr. Stevenson. Hearing that it was Adlai E. Steven son, of Illinois, and that he had been nominated by the Democratic party, as Vice-President on the Demo-cratic ticket, the letter carrier picked up his hat and said, "That settles it, boys, Yes, I know all about Adlai E. Steve'son, I know too much about him. He is the man who while First Assistant Postmaster-General under Cleveland's Ad-Assistant Postmaster-General under Cleveland's Administration was covertly opposed to the eight-hour law, and he worket against the letter carriers in the most underhand way imaginable. You can just bet your bottom dellar that every letter carrier knows enough about A. E. Stevenson, and foo much to take him as a candidate on the Democratic ticket. I can't vote that ticket." He went out of the clubrooms shaking the Democratic dust off his feet and threatening to organize a letter carriers' club to oppose Cleveland and Stevenson. The Yorkville Republican Club is another one of ose political organizations which have dared in spite of the prophecies of failure and the sneers of their friends, the Democrats, to open a clubhouse of their own. This club has been in existence but a short time, but in spite of its youthfulness it has developed a vitality and strength that promise effective cam-paign work during the summer and fall. This club has taken a cosy house at the northeast corner of Ninety-third-st, and Lexington-ave., which in that part of the city is known as the "Hill." The house is a three-story frame building, the basement of which is three-story frame building, the basement of which is fitted up as a billiard-room, with handsome billiard and pool tables and all the requirements for a quiet and pleasant game. The upper floors are fitted up as reading and cart rooms, with handsome antique furniture, steel engravings of Presidents on the walls, and a liberal and tasteful display of bunting and Republican streamers. The whole house has been newly papered and painted. In the rear is a garden 30x25 feet, which will be covered by a carryas awning painted a light green color, and will afford a cool and delight-ful retreat for the members during the summer Flowers and shrubs will cover the walls, and the place will be lighted with electric are lights, while tables and chairs will make it a desirable meeting

This club will have a celebration on the night of July 4, and will show its patriotism by listening to patriotic speeches and expleding about five barrels of A committee is at work arranging for an nreworks. A committee is at work arranging for an immense transparency forty feet by twenty-five, which will cover up one whole side of the building. The names of Benjamin Harrison, of Indiana, and Whitelaw Reid, of New-York, comfortably nestling under the spreading wings of an American cagle will be the prominent feature of the banner, while the local nominations will occupy the other parts of the banner. Another committee of this club is at work preparing for an outing which will take place some The president of this club is Edward Duboise, who is also secretary of the Union Republican Club, Some of the other members of the club are Mr. Foley, Dr. Passark, Mr. Parker, Mr. Tonge and Mr. Riller, all well-known people in that neigh-

On June 29, at 8 o'clock in the evening the James G. Blaine Club, of Harlem, No. 112 East One-hundred-and-tenth-st., will hold its second monster ratification meeting on which occasion it will raise what is promised to be one of the handsomest Harrison and Reid banners that will be raised in this city during the campaign. The banner is thirty-five by forty feet, the top of which on a streamer will be the words, "Protection; Reciprocity; Honest Money." Under this motto will be the words, "James G. Brime Club, of Harlem." In the centre of the banner will be an American eagle holding in its beak a ribbon on which the following words will be emblazoned: "One good turn deserves another." On each side of the engle will be a large portrait of Benjamin Harrison and Whitelaw Reid. A temporary stage will be erected in front of the clubhouse for the accommodation of invited guests and speakers, while a brass band has loca engaged. One of the speakers who has already accepted the invitation to be present is General George A. Sheridan, while many other well-known speakers

The first annual clambake of the Peter H. McDonald Association will take place at Feteler's Grove, New-Dorp, S. I., under the anspices of the Irish-American Republican Club, of the XXIIId Assembly Dis trict, to-day. The start will be made from One-hundred-and ninth st. and Second ave., at 8 o'clock in the morning, in coaches and stages that have been engaged for the purpose. Nearly 600 tickets have been sold, so that the clambake is assured of a great suc-cess. There will be representatives of the following clubs present. The Yorkville Republican Club, the Harlem Republican Club, the Morrisania Republican Club, the Washington Republican Club and the High Bridge Republican Club. Athletic and aquatic contests will follow the clambake. The programme will include a 100-yard dash, a 220-yard dash, a mile run. high and long jumping, pole vaulting and a one mile walk. There will also be a one-mile boat race and a 100 yard swimming match, between John Reilly and R. L. Morgan. In the evening an oper-air mee ing will be held to ratify the Republican nomination made at Minneapolis, at which prominent Republican speakers from the XIVth, XVIth, XIXth and XXIIId Assembly Districts will make speeches. The officers of this recently organized as oriation are: Robert L. Morgan, president; William M. Churchill, first vicepresident; Patrick Maloney, second vice-president; mes B. Stephens, recording secretary; William Lawlor, financial secretary ; John Reilly, treasurer ; Thomas Miley, sergeant-at-arms.

The Treasure-Seeking Circle of the King's Children gave a successful fair on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons and evenings in the parlors of the Harlem Preparatory School. The children had almost the entire charge of the tables, which were managed in a manner that gave satisfaction to all, under the direction of Miss M. R. Winans. Miss Isabel Hasgood and Miss Nina Peck were in charge of the Japanese table, which was tostefully famished with attractive brica-brac and articles of use. The fates of those attending the fair were forefold by Miss Daily Ryer-Byerson and Miss Gestrude Cary had charge of the fancy table, where some beautifully executed fancy work was displayed. It was the work of little girls of not more than eight or ten years old. Miss Annie Ryerson was dressed in Greek costume, while Miss Gestrude Cary appeared as an Indian girl. Commencement day at St. John's College was held The drill of the students showed that they deserved their reputation for the accuracy and beauty of their evolutions. The literary exercise were interesting and the scene, as the students and their friends walked about the broad lawns and under the great trees, was an attractive sight for many who college had. The commencement at the Academy of Mount St. Vincent was held on the day after that of Fordham College, and Archbishop Corrigan presided on ooth occasions. Several young women spoke and others gave instrumental music at the Mount St. Vincent commencement. The members of the graduating class were Misses Henrietta Bashford, Mand M. Blederman, Mary A. Daly, Catherine T. Hefferman, Mary C. Johnson, Mary E. Lant and Elizabeth M. McEnroe.

The tennis players managed to keep on with their tournaments last week in spite of the occasional disturbing showers. The closing of the spring handleap tournament of the Manhattan Tennis Association was discussed by many of the uptown residents. The the best players in the Twenty-third Ward, and itsuccess in obtaining the second place in the tournament was gratifying to its friends. The Knicker bocker tournament was continued last week, the play being principally in the mixed doubles and ladies' single matches. Arthur E. Filley won the prize in the men's singles. Several meetings of the recorganized Rutherford Tennis Club have been held lately and much interest has been shown in the games which will be played on its courts in St. Mary's Park. The Wyandotte Tennis Club has been reorganized with Charles A. Nixon as president, and Dan schwegler, one of the best tennis players in the matches of previouyears, as field captain. several of the old residents of the northern wards died last week. Among them was John Chapman, seventy-four years old, who had lived for thirty-five years in Trement. The vocal part of the programme will be furnished by Miss Camille d'Arville, Miss Flora Finlay-on, Edwin Hoff and Eugene Cowles, of the flostoni-nas. After Gilmore goes away a week will intervens before Mr. Damrosch occupies the amphitheatre with his orchestra. The roof garden will be open and the ntertainment there will go on through everything.

Though there is a comparatively new opera at the Costno, the feature of the place which chiefly attracts nd holds public attention is the roof garden. "The Vice-Admiral" makes a lively bid for popular favor, out there have always been operas at the Casino and performance such as is now given on the roof every night, including Sundays, is something new. The present attractions will be retained there till he Fourth of July, when there will be some changes and important additions, and some new entertainers

Executive Mansion, Washington, June 18, 1892.

Howard M. Smith, Esq., President, etc.

My Bear Sir: Permit me to express the pleasure with which I have received the congratulations of the Union League Club of Brooklyn, extended through you. I notice also the tender of a reception at the clubhouse at some date to be named by me, for which I am very much obliged; but I do not see how it will be possible for me to a cept the invitation. The entinued illness of Mrs. Haritson will make it necessary for me to accompany her to some health resort, and this attendance upon her, in conjection with public duties here, will leave. I fear, no time for such engagements as you propose. Very truly yours, the Crescent Athletic Club will hold its spring tennis.

The Crescent Athletic Clab will hold its spring tennis tournament at the club grounds, Eny Ridge, Leginning on July 12. Play will begin each day of the tournament immediately after the arrival at the grounds of the 3:10 p. m. boat, except on saturdays, when it will begin on the arrival of the boat which runs one hour earlier. disted Justice Goetling's Lee Avenue Police Court vesterday in warch of a warrant for the arrest of his son Benjamin, seventeen years o'd, in order to prevent his marrying Miss Louise Schroeder, of No. 41 Debevoise-st. The young woman is employed, it is said, as a saleswoman in Henry Eatterman's dry goods store. Schoeneman said that the objections to the marriage were haved on the different religious hellef of the young people. The parent declared that young Benjamin was determined to marry the girl to-day. The clerk refused to grant the warrant and Schoeneman left the courtroom, declaring that he would take other measures to prevent the wedding.

DAVID H. RAMSAY WANTS A DIVORCE.

David H. Ramsay, of Ramsays, N. J., is seeking absolute divorce in the Supreme Court from Mrs. Annie E. Ramsay. A year or two ago he sued George I. Ryerson to recover $25,000 as damages for the allena ion of the affections of Mrs. Ramsay, and recovered ming her husband in the New-York courts to recover $10,000 as damages for the injuries caused by his shooting her in the neck some three ago. Her counsel sought allmony and counsel fee yesterday, saying that Ramsay's income is $2,000 a year, and he is about to receive a large sum from the estate of his sister. The plaintiff's counsel presented a deposition by Mrs. Edwin F. Brown, of Forty-seventhett, New-York, setting forth that Mrs. Ramsay was living with her husband. Time was granted to answer this.

DEATH OF HERBERT FEARN.

Dr. Herbert Fearn, a well-known physician, died resterday at his home, No. 196 Clermont-ave., at the age of fifty-eight. He was born in England, but came to this country in 1842. In 1857 he was graduated from the New-York Medical College and entered upon the practice of his profession in Brooklyn. He gained a large practice and took much interest in public affairs. At one time he was active in the Central Taxpayers' Association to reform slipshod municipal methods. Dr. Fearn belonged to the Kings County Medical Society and the Brooklyn Fathological Association. His death was due to fatty degeneration of the heart. The funeral will take place to morrow,
